Newsletter - 12th November, 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

This week is Anti-Bullying week. The children will participate in a range of teaching and learning experiences in classes and be reminded of our well established and well understood school motto 'See something, say something'. We have bought anti-bullying wristbands for all the children to wear- this year's theme is 'Choose Respect'.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION CANDIDATES

The children have now begun their journey in preparation for First Holy Communion in May.
 Lessons will begin in school this half-term and children should be attending Mass and getting their attendance cards stamped by Father Duane. Thank you.

PINK CONTACT FORMS

Thank you to those of you who have returned the pink contact forms promptly so that we can update our records.

At the moment we still have quite a few forms that have not been returned and we have had instances in the last week where we have been unable to contact parents or have out of date medical information.

It is ESSENTIAL that all outstanding forms are returned by THURSDAY at the latest so that all details can be updated.
 Thank you.

Homework questionnaires

Thank you very much for your responses to our homework questionnaire, which were very positive overall.

I have analysed the answers and you will be sent a summary of the findings. We will be consulting further with children and staff and will then make some decisions, based on all the feedback. Thank you once again for taking the time to reply— we value your opinions.

Congratulations to the 4 children in Years 5 and 6 who gained their 25 metres swimming badge last week.

I hope you all have a lovely week.

God Bless
 Mrs Flaherty
