Newsletter - 25th November, 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Yesterday we celebrated the feast of Christ The King. Jesus was chosen by God to be king— a king who is full of love and mercy. Jesus forgave those who crucified him and many others as well. Pope Francis reminds us that 'In life we all make many mistakes. Don't be afraid to ask God for forgiveness— God is pure mercy'. Mercy is a gift from God.

If your child was born between 1st September 2015 and 31st August, 2016, it is now time to apply for a place in Reception class starting in 2020. You must apply online at www.leeds.gov.uk before 15th January, 2020. If you need any help you can ring the Admissions team on 0113 2224414 or call into school.
 You must also complete a Supplementary Information form (available from our school office) if you are applying to our school.

Thank you.

YEAR OF READING

This year has been dedicated to the joy of reading. We are hoping to re-vamp and restock our Junior library for the children and to promote the love of reading. Please encourage your children to read books, comics, newspapers etc... at home.

Thank you.

I hope you all have a lovely week.

God Bless
 Mrs Flaherty
 Head Teacher
